Tips & Suggestions

- Poultry (and poultry products such as chicken broth) and eggs should be free range, hormone- and antibiotic-free when possible
- Beef (and beef products such as beef broth) and butter should be grass-fed, organic when possible
- Seafood should be sourced from the wild, never farm-raised
- Healthy fats include unprocessed and unrefined coconut oil, olive oil, sesame oil, avocado oil, and grass-fed butter; avoid canola oil, vegetable oil, corn oil, peanut oil, soybean oil, and grape seed oil.
- Fruits and vegetables should be organic whenever possible, especially blueberries, strawberries, apples, peaches, nectarines, grapes, cucumber, celery, peppers, grape tomatoes, spinach, kale, and summer squash
- For more flavor and variation, consider using the following healthy seasonings: fresh/dried herbs, black pepper, cayenne pepper, chili powder, cinnamon, cumin, curry, garlic, ginger, nutmeg, paprika, saffron, turmeric, vinegar, and fresh lemon or lime juice
